Riddle 01

A wealthy family lived in a big circular house. They had a maid, a butler, and a gardener. The parents were going to a party, so they tucked the younger kids into bed and kissed them goodnight and said goodbye, and kissed the older kids goodnight. When the parents came home, all the kids were gone—they had been kidnapped. The authorities ask the butler, maid, and gardener what they were doing at the time of the kidnapping. The butler says he was organizing the library, the maid says she was dusting the corners, and the gardener says he was watering the plants. Who's lying and actually kidnapped the kids?

Riddle 02

A farmer went to a market and bought a wolf, a goat, and a cabbage. On his way home, the farmer came to the bank of a river and rented a boat. But crossing the river by boat, the farmer could carry only himself and a single one of his purchases: the wolf, the goat, or the cabbage. If left unattended together, the wolf would eat the goat, or the goat would eat the cabbage. The farmer's challenge was to carry himself and his purchases to the far bank of the river, leaving each purchase intact. How did he do it?

Riddle 03

A woman is sitting in her hotel room and hears a knock at the door. She opens the door to see a man whom she's never met before. He says, "I'm sorry, I have made a mistake, I thought this was my room." He then goes down the corridor and into the elevator. The woman goes back into her room and calls security. What made the woman so suspicious of the man?

Riddle 04

Grandpa went for a walk, and it started raining. He forgot to bring an umbrella and didn't have a hat.

When he got home, his clothes were soaking wet, but not a hair on his head was wet. How was this possible?

Riddle 05

You walk into a room and see a bed. On the bed, there are two dogs, five cats, a giraffe, six cows, and a goose.

There are also three doves flying above the bed. How many legs are on the floor?

Riddle 06

A California farmer owns a beautiful pear tree.

He supplies the fruit to a nearby grocery store. The store owner calls the farmer to see how much fruit is available for him to buy. The farmer knows the main trunk has 24 branches. Each branch has exactly 12 boughs and each bough has exactly 6 twigs. Since each twig bears one piece of fruit, how many plums will the farmer be able to deliver?

Riddle 07

A man is found unconscious in front of a store at two in the morning. His head is bleeding and there's a brick laying next to him. When the police arrive, they carry the man to jail.

Why did they arrest him?

Riddle 08

In a one-story house at the corner of the road, the bedrooms were yellow, the kitchen was orange, the living room was red, the garage was blue, the entry hall was green and the sitting room was purple. What color were the stairs?

Riddle 09

My first is in chocolate but no in ham. My second is in cake and also in jam. My third at tea-time is easily found. Altogether, this is a friend who is often around. What is it?

Riddle 13

A father told his three sons he would die soon
and he needed to decide which one of them to give his property to. He said, "Go to the market and buy something that is large enough to fill my bedroom, but small enough to fit in your pocket. From this, I will decide which of you is the wisest and worthy enough to inherit my land." They all went to the market, and each came back with a different item. The father told his sons to come into his bedroom one at a time and try to fill up his bedroom with their item. The first son came in and put some pieces of cloth he bought and laid them across the room, but it barely covered the floor. The second son came in and laid some hay on the floor, but there was only enough to cover half the floor.

The third son came in and showed his father what he bought. He wound up getting the property. What did the third son show his father?

Riddle 14

It spends most of its day eating white, but when it's quick enough, it gets to eat fruit and sometimes some blue things. It's in a dark room, where the walls are blue, it runs from a ghost that roams the halls and haunts it all the time. What is it?

Riddle 15

Riddle 16

I look flat, but I am deep. Hidden realms I shelter. Lives I take, but food I offer. At times I am beautiful. I can be calm, angry, and turbulent. I have no heart, but offer pleasure as well as death. No man can own me, yet I encompass what all men must have. What am I?

Riddle 17

A woman named Maria was at the funeral of her mother. She met a nice young man that she had never seen before and after the service, they spent a bit of time together. Then she got busy and didn't get his name or phone number before he left. She tried to find him, but no one knew who he was or how to contact him. A few weeks later, Maria's older sister dies and the police suspect murder. Who killed the sister?

Riddle 18

You stand in front of two doors. A guard stands next to each door. You know the following things: one path leads to paradise, the other leads to death. You cannot distinguish between the two doors. You also know that one of the two guards always tells the truth and the other always lies. You have permission to ask one guard one question to discover which door leads to paradise. What one question would you ask to guarantee you enter the door to paradise?
